

How to Read a Paper Map! Scavenger Hunt

1. What page or section can you find the Road Construction and Conditions?
2. What is the purpose of the index?
3. What is the map legend?
4. What are the 4 most relevant items on the legend that you feel are most important for your job?
5. What latitude and longitude would you find Atlanta, Georgia?
6. What latitude and longitude would you find Dayton, Ohio?
7. What latitude and longitude would you find Houston, Texas?
8. What are two low clearance locations in South Carolina?
9. In New Jersey, what exit can you find a weigh station?
10. In New Jersey, how far is it from Newark to Jersey City? What did you use on the map to find your answer?

11. In Florida, how far is it from Jacksonville to Orlando? What did you use on the map to find your answer?
12. In Indiana, how far is it from Indianapolis, to Michigan City In? What did you use on the map to find your answer?
13. Approximately how far from Orlando on I-4 is a rest stop with a toilet? How do you know that rest stop has a toilet?
14. If you are delivering at Kenansville in Florida and have to travel north up highway 441, what might you encounter?
15. How many weigh stations are in the state of Florida?
16. If you are in Colorado Springs and need to go to New Mexico, what direction would you be traveling?
17. How many rest areas are there on I-15 traveling from Idaho Falls to Malad City?
18. What are the advantages and disadvantages of a paper map?

