

Luma Connections #12: Teaching Respect in a Safe Environment

Teaching Tool: Discussion Board

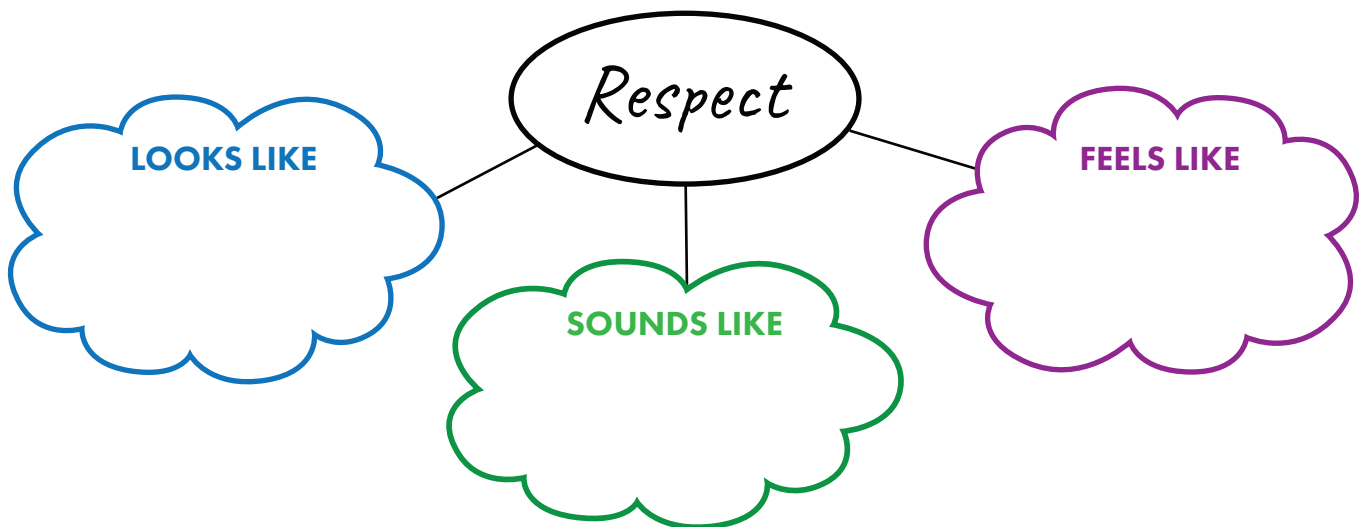

This is an online tool that allows learners to interact with each other to explore a topic and to discuss key concepts and concepts, share experiences, interact with each other, and to ask questions. Interactions are not in real-time and can be mentor-learner and learner-to-learner.

Tip: Creating respect Word Clouds in groups

In discussion groups provide the opportunity for groups to work together to create a visual of how respect looks, feels and sounds. Invite groups to fill in their word clouds with words and share them in newsletters, in terminals or buildings, and even on your social media sites.

Fill in the Word Cloud describing what respect looks like, sounds like, and feels like. We will pick the best ones to showcase.

Some ideas for answers:

- Looks like: opening the door, letting someone turn in front of you, eating healthy, picking up your trash, helping carry something
- Sounds like: "Thank you", using kind words, "Please", "No, thank you", using a kind voice
- Feels like: community, friendly, warm, helpful
